A FARM FOR SALE, MOUNT PLEASANT has about FIVE HUNDRED ACRES, and lies as handsomely as any place on the Potomac, situated with the river in front of the mouth of Occoquan Bay, and between the farms of Messrs. Tayloe's (Deep Hole and the Farm) three miles from the village of Occoquan, and 18 from Alexandria; the former is the principal market for the produce of this county, with its Mills and Factory to sustain it.

The house is convenient, and with repairs, might be rendered most comfortable. There is an abundance of wood and timber, and the best of water, with springs, throughout the place.

The prospect is rarely surpassed, and the land lies admirable for culture, with a bateau navigation up a creek to a fine landing; and with a ware, fish may be caught daily.

Unquestionable free simple title can be conveyed, and terms accommodating. References made to Joseph Janney, Esq., of Occoquan, who knows the place.
