

Alexandria Gazette 25 Feb 1848

$30 REWARD – Ranaway from the FREE STONE Farm in Prince William County, Va., on Friday 18th inst. Negro Man Daniel. He is about 5 feet 8 or 10 inches high and has lost some of his front teeth, is about forty-five years old and his hair is getting grey, he has a very husky voice and is a dark brown color, Daniel left the farm saying he intended seeing me in Alexandria but I have not heard of his being in this place and suppose he is endeavoring to make his way to a free state, $10 if taken in Prince William County, $20 if taken in any of the neighboring counties, and secured so that I can get him. Daniel has a pass with him dated 27th February for two days which he may endeavor to have altered; it was given to him that he might go to Brentsville on the day of its date.

John W. Fairfax
Prince William County, Virginia

Alexandria Gazette 12 Mar 1872

Mr. Jacob D. Faunce will fish at Freestone Point this season, and John Naglee Jr., will fish at MARSH HALL on his DEEP HOLE FARM, both fisheries in this County. Mr. Faunce, for himself, and Mr. James V. Nash for Naglee, were in Dumfries last Saturday hiring hands.