

Fauquier Flag of 98

TO PARENTS AND GUARDIANS – The advertiser, a teacher of long experience is about to leave his situation at Hay Market, and wishes to take charge of a school elsewhere. He teaches the Greek, Latin, and French languages, and the usual course of study in the English Department. Having a family, he will want a suitable dwelling. References is given to his present employers at Hay Market, most of whom have honored him with their patronage from the commencement of 1843 to the present time. Address

George Paddison
Haymarket, P. O.
Prince William County