Alexandria Gazette 2 May 1857

MEADOW FARM FOR SALE – I offer at Private Sale, my FARM lying in the County of Prince William, adjoining the land of Judge Tyler, and immediately on the Turnpike Road leading from Alexandria to Warrenton, and two and a half miles from Gainesville, a depot on the Manassas Gap Railroad, thirty five miles distant from Alexandria; which place can be reached in two hours on the Cars.

This estate contains NINE HUNDRED AND FORTY ONE AND A HALF ACRES, about four hundred of which are in WOOD and timber. The balance is cleared, and divided into nine Fields, all of them well watered by lasting Springs. Broad Run a large and never failing mountain stream passes through the Estate from West to East, bordering on which is a beautiful Meadow of one hundred acres, now well taken in Timothy and blue grass, and not only valuable as a meadow, but highly useful for grazing purposes. The uplands are rolling and susceptible of any decree of improvement.

The improvements are a large and commodious DWELLING, with seven spacious rooms, four above and three below stairs, and the necessary out-houses. Surrounding the yard is a large and flourishing Orchard of Apples, Pears, Peaches, Cherries, Apricots, &c., of the finest varieties and many of them in full bearing. Country Stores are numerous and convenient. The neighborhood is unsurpassed by any in the state of health, and affords the best Society.

To those wishing to purchase a fine country residence, will do well to call and examine this Estate. For further information, address Judge Z. Colliss Lee; Baltimore, Md.

Warrenton True Index 24 Aug 1867

VIRGINIA – At rules held in the Clerk’s Office of the Circuit Court of Prince William County, on the 5th day of August 1867, Hamden A. White, surviving partner of himself and Edwin Smith late merchants &c., trading under the name and style of H. A. White & Company, plaintiff, against Collins L. Macrae, defendant, IN AN ACTION OF DEBT, on bond for $166.64 with interest from the 2nd day of September 1856, in which an attachment has been issued. The object of this suit is to attach the interest of Collins L. Macrae in real estate (MEADOW FARM), conveyed by J. W. F. Macrae, to Z. Collius Lee in trust for the benefit of his wife and children.

The defendant Collins L. Macrae not having entered his appearance and given security according to the Act of Assembly and the rules of this Court, and it appearing by satisfactory evidence that they are not residents of this state, it is ordered that they appear here within one month after due publication of this order and do what is necessary to protect their interest in this suit, and that a copy of this order be forthwith inserted in the “True Index” a newspaper published in the town of Warrenton, once a week for four successive weeks and posted at the front door of the Court House of this County.
