

I'm sorry I just had to add this (R.T.)

Alexandria Gazette 5 May 1893

Prince William County Notes

Mr. Joseph H. Guthridge of Potomac Mills, while hunting for hawk's nests in a body of woods near there, came across the skeleton of a man in an old hollow chestnut tree. There were bones, clothes, cap brim, and a wooden leg. Mr. Guthridge carried the wooden leg home with him