

W. W. Abel General Store

In business from c1890 to at least 1917. In the business licenses and business directories of Prince William County as Dumfries but was located in what is now Quantico. This was a full service general store selling everything from hardware to medicine.

I have a copy of an account sheet with a letter-head from 1913.