

Alexander & Lauck

Dr. Lawrence Alexander was one of the first physicians in the new town of Manassas. The first record of his practice in Manassas is a receipt for services in 1868. In late 1869 he teamed with Dr. Theodore H. Lauck to start the practice of Alexander & Lauck located on Main Street.

In addition to the medical practice the front of the store was well supplied. A letter head from the business in 1870 lists: "Alexander & Lauck practitioners of medicine, also dealers in Drugs, Chemicals, Paints, Oils, Fancy Articles, Dye Stuffs, &c. – Terms Cash
