

Ashton Brothers Store was a Drug Store that also sold groceries and tobacco. As with most stores in that time period they stocked anything that would sell. Brothers, Horace and William Ashton opened the store in downtown Manassas in the late 1870s. At that time William was operating a general store in Greenwich but within a year sold the business and worked full time in Manassas.