

Commonwealth of Virginia vs Clay Grigsby

Prince William County, to wit:

In the County Court of said County, March Term 1870

The Jurors of the Commonwealth of Virginia in and for the body of the County of Prince William and now attending the said court upon their oaths present that Clay Grigsby on the 21st day of February 1870 in the said county in and upon one L. A. Marsteller an assault did make and him the said L. A. Marsteller feloniously and maliciously did shoot and wound with intent him the said L. A. Marsteller then and there to maim, disfigure, and kill, against the form of the statute in such cases made and provided and against the Peace and Dignity of the Commonwealth of Virginia.

Second Count – And the Jurors aforesaid upon their oaths aforesaid farther present that Clay Grigsby on the 21st day of February 1870 in the said county in and upon one L. A. Marsteller an assault did make and him the said Marsteller did then and there unlawfully beat, wound and ill treat and other wrongs to him then and there did to the great damage of him the said L. A. Marsteller and against the Peace and Dignity of the Commonwealth of Virginia.

“A True Bill”

George C. Round
Attorney for the Commonwealth of Virginia