

Source - "Prince William: A Past to Preserve" by the Prince William County Historical Commission

Historic Name: Conner House

Date or Period: ca. 1844, 1855, early 20th century

Original Use: Residence

Vicinity: Manassas Park

"This two-story, stone building has a metal-covered, gabled roof. Camp Walker, a Confederate campsite, was located close to this house, which was said to have been damaged during the fighting on August 27, 1862. The house is one of the only remaining historical sites in the city of Manassas Park."

A picture of the house can be seen at <http://www.pwcvabooks.com/pwcvabooksimages.htm>