

The Commonwealth of Virginia
To Solomon Brill, constable of Prince William County – Account

25 Aug 1860 To arresting Reuben Abel charged with felony $1.00; To traveling 16 miles in conveying said Abel to jail of Prince William County at 10 per mile $1.60; Amount paid Edwin Nelson assisting in arresting said prisoner at 75 per day one day $0.75; Amount paid same assisting in conveying said Abel to jail 16 miles at 10 per mile $1.60; Summon 4 witnesses for the Commonwealth to attend examination before Justices at 20 each $0.80 – Total $5.75

Prince William County, to wit;
Solomon Brill personally appeared before me & made oath that the foregoing account is just and true. Given under my hand this 12th day of January 1861.

Jno C. Weedon J.P.

Prince William County, to wit;
Edwin Nelson personally appeared before me & made oath that the foregoing account so far as it relates to the charge of assisting in the arrest of the said Abel by him is just and correct. Given under my hand this 12th day of January 1861.

Jno C. Weedon J.P.