

Source - "Prince William: A Past to Preserve" by the Prince William County Historical Commission

Historic Name: Double House/Dawson House (208 Commerce Street, Occoquan)

Date or Period: ca.1800

Original Use: Residence

Vicinity: Occoquan

A two-story, frame building on a brick foundation built as half a duplex to house workers at the nearby cotton mill. It has an asphalt, shingle-covered roof and two-part chimney.

A picture of this house can be found on page 43