

Historic Name: Double House

Source: Prince William County Historical Commission-“A Past to Preserve”

Date or Period: ca.1800

Original Use: Residence

Vicinity: Occoquan

This two-story, frame building on a brick foundation was built as half a duplex to house workers at the nearby cotton mill. It has an asphalt, shingle-covered roof and a two-part chimney.

For a picture of this house see “A Past to Preserve”
1998 – Prince William County Historical Commission