

15 April 1856

Doyle & Company vs M. Fitzhugh

$28.00 Note – On the first day of August 1852 I promise and bind myself, my heirs, &c to pay T. J. Doyle & Company on order. The just and full sum of twenty eight dollars for value received.

Milton Fitzhugh

The above obligation is for a Fanning Mill, which is warranted to be good and to do good business. If not good the signer has the privilege of returning it to said T. J. Doyle & Company's shop in Fredericksburg in the month of September next, at which place said Doyle & Company agree to furnish a Mill which shall be good, in exchange therefore.

August 21, 1852

The Commonwealth of Virginia to B. Cooper, constable of Prince William County – Greetings: You are commanded to summon Milton Fitzhugh to appear before me or some other Justice of the Peace for said County, at Brentsville on the 19th day of January 1856 to answer the complaint of T. J. Doyle & Company for the non-payment of sixteen dollars and 78 cents, with interest, due by note. Given under my hand this 25th day of December 1856

A. Howison

Judgment is granted the plaintiff for the sum of sixteen dollars and 78 cents with interest thereon from the 4th day of November 1854 till paid, with 30 cents costs. Given under my hand this 15th day of March 1856
