

Herris Site

Source: "Prince William the Story of Its People and Its Places" by The Virginia Writers Project – Originally compiled in 1941 and later sponsored by The Bethlehem Good Housekeeping Club of Manassas, Virginia in 1961 –

Page 86

“Right 0.1 mile from U.S.1 on County 610 is a junction with County 638; R. here about 200 yards to the lonely GRAVE OF WILLIAM HERRIS, the date of which has often been misread and misquoted. On a table-top tomb are carved a cherub and a sword and the following inscription: Here lyes Bodey of Liut. Willeame Herris who Died May 16: 1698: Aged 065 years. By Birth A Britaine: A Good Soldier, A Good Husband & Kinde Neighbour