

Commonwealth of Virginia vs Michael M. Roseberry
Prince William County, to wit

The Commonwealth of Virginia, in and for the body of the County of Prince William and now attending the said court, upon the oaths present, that Michael M. Roseberry on the 1st day of January in the year one thousand eight hundred and sixty six, in the said County, did unlawfully and injuriously, put in place, and cause to be placed, in and upon the common highway, leading from Brentsville to Slaty Run, divers large pieces of timber and other material, and did unlawfully suffer the same then to be and remain from the said 1st day of January 1866, to this day, and doth now unlawfully suffer the same there to be and remain, to the great damage and common nuisance of all the citizens of this Commonwealth of Virginia. Upon the information of Jas M. Barbee, A. B. Weedon and R. Deats of Prince William County, sworn and sent to give evidence to the Grand Jury by them.

A. Nicol, Attorney for the Commonwealth in said County