Ordinary Keepers

The following people paid a business tax to keep an Ordinary in Prince William County in the 19th Century.

According to Virginia law an Ordinary Keeper is any person who shall, for compensation, furnish lodging or diet to travelers, sojourners, or boarders in his house, or provender for his horse feeding in his stable or on his land. An Ordinary Keeper may also sell retail wine, spirituous or malt liquors, or any mixture of them, to be drunk in or at the place of sale.

Persons who operated places deemed to be Taverns and Bar-Rooms were not included in this list.
