

Prince William County Clerk's Loose Papers
Road Application – 1885
Wellington to Langyher's Mill

To the Honorable William E. Lipscomb, Judge of Prince William County Court:

We the undersigned citizens of Prince William County respectfully petition for the establishment of a public road commencing at a point on the New Market Road running from Langyher's Mill. Said point being the residence of Austin Rollins and running through the lands of Anna Phillips for the distance of about one half of a mile and terminating at the residence of Louisa Rollins, which is known as the "Shirley Place", and now owned by Austin Rollins.
